

where are they now?

By Bobby Mitchell

If you are an NFL Alumni member, I'd like to hear from you. Send current information to the attention of NFL Alumni Update, 3696 N. Federal Hwy., Suite 202, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33308-6262.

Darren Anderson (DB, Patriots, Buccaneers, Chiefs and Falcons 1992-98) is vice president and investment market sales manager at The Huntington Investment Company headquartered in Columbus, Ohio. He and his wife live in West Chester, Ohio and have four children, daughters Drew, 11, Regan, 9 and Riley, 4 months and son Hunter, 7. Anderson enjoys golfing and is a member of the Urban League of Greater Cincinnati.

Darren Anderson

Cameron Benson (WR, Buccaneers 1984) is city manager for the City of Hollywood, Fla. He and his wife live in Davie, Fla. and have three daughters, Siena Sahara, 12, Summer Cyrene, 10 and Sia Sage, 6. In his spare time Benson likes playing golf, fishing and duck hunting. He is a board member of the Florida Youth Athletic Association which provides a dedicated focus of support for youth athletic activities. He is also a member of Leadership Broward Foundation, Inc. and the National Forum for Black Public Administrators. In December 2008 Benson was inducted into the Broward County Sports Hall of Fame.

Steven Craig (TE, Vikings 1974-78) is a human resource labor executive for Lyondell-Bassell, an oil and chemical company in Houston, Texas. Craig lives in Sugarland, Texas and has an adult daughter. He likes playing golf and traveling internationally. Craig is a member of the National Black MBA Association and National Association of African Americans in Human Resources.

Mark Fields (LB, Saints, Rams and Panthers 1995-2004) is co-owner of Rose & Fields Real Estate which does business primarily in the Phoenix, Ariz. area. Fields lives in Litchfield Park, Ariz. and has four children, Mark Jr., 12, Tyus, 8, Milan, 7 and Nicole, 6. He enjoys playing golf, riding ATV's and boating. Fields is a co-founder, with his former teammate the late Sam Mills, of The Keep Pounding Fund which benefits research programs of the Blumenthal Cancer Center at Carolinas Medical Center.

Cameron Benson

Ralph J. Giacomarro, P.E. (P, Falcons and Broncos 1983-85, 1987)

is structural engineer and vice president of operations for Cherokee Metals Company, a manufacturer of premium custom made prepainted steel and aluminum components for service station canopies. He and his wife live in Cumming, Ga. and have three children, Charlie, 24, Chrissy, 23 and Eddie, 20. In his spare time he likes playing golf, snow skiing and running and is currently training for a half marathon.

Todd Peterson

Bob Hallen (OG-C, Falcons and Chargers 1998-2005) is a firefighter and paramedic for the Mentor (Ohio) Fire Department. Hallen and his wife live in Concord, Ohio and have two children, Brianna, 8 and Joshua, 3. His hobbies include motorcycle riding, attending music concerts and weightlifting. Hallen received his bachelor's degree in education from Kent State University in May 2009.

Tommy Nobis (LB, Falcons 1966-76) is in his 30th season as a member of the front office of the Atlanta Falcons. Nobis and his wife live in Flowery Branch, Ga. and have three adult children and six grandchildren. His hobbies include fishing and hunting. He is founder and volunteer director for the Tommy Nobis Center, a vocational training center for youth and adults with disabilities.

Todd Peterson (K, Cardinals, Seahawks, Chiefs, Steelers, 49ers and Falcons 1994-2006) is co-owner of Cabell's Designs, a collegiate tailgating tableware and home décor product company. He is also a partner and board member of Rose Rock Capital Group, a real estate and capital markets group specializing in healthcare real estate, and a partner in a winery in Oregon. Peterson and his wife live in Atlanta with their children Hannah and Zach. In his spare time he likes wine collecting, hunting and snow-skiing. Peterson is vice-chairman of Pro Athletes Outreach and serves on the boards of The Seed Company, Passion Conferences/Choice Ministries and YoungLife Africa.

Kevin Reilly (LB, Eagles and Patriots 1973-75) is in his 11th season as host of the Philadelphia Eagles' pre- and post game shows for the Eagles Radio Network. He also serves as play-by-play announcer for the Eagles pre-season games on the Eagles TV Network. In addition, he is a motivational speaker. Reilly lives in Wilmington, Del. and has three children and six grandchildren. He enjoys jogging and playing golf. Reilly is a board member of Easter Seals Delaware and Maryland's Eastern Shore and a qualified peer visitor at Walter Reed National Army Medical Center in Washington, D.C. where he provides counseling to amputee veterans.

Alan Veingrad (OT-OG, Packers and Cowboys 1986-92) is a professional speaker and entertainer. He and his wife live in Coral Springs, Fla. and have three children, Jeri, 14, Brooke, 12 and Ryan, 10. His hobbies include kayak fishing, hiking, reading, biking and cooking. Veingrad is a member of AIPAC, the American Israel Public Affairs Committee and is active in fundraising for the Hebrew Academy in Margate, Fla. In April 2010 he will be inducted into the National Jewish Sports Hall of Fame and Museum in Commack, N.Y.

Alan Veingrad